

Your community wood needs you!

Dedicate your time and experience and do something amazing for your local community!

are looking for volunteers just like you to help care and manage your local woodland.

You can help out with day-to-day woodland management, host guided walks or help fundraise.

Interested?

Find out more:

For more information or to join the Community Woodland Network visit:

communitywoodland.org

